

MCCANN FITZGERALD CHAIR IN CORPORATE LAW

The School of Law, Trinity College Dublin and McCann FitzGerald are delighted to announce the establishment of the McCann FitzGerald Chair in Corporate Law. This is a full-time permanent position in Ireland's oldest and most prestigious Law School, and we are seeking applications from suitably qualified candidates in Corporate Law specialising in areas such as corporate governance or securities law.

McCann FitzGerald is one of Ireland's premier law firms, providing the highest quality legal advice and representation to Irish and overseas clients principally in the corporate, financial and business sectors as well as to government entities and many State bodies. The successful candidate for this important position will play a significant role in researching and shaping future policy, supporting Trinity College Dublin and McCann FitzGerald's shared objectives of leadership, partnership and innovation both in the public and private sectors.

In response to emerging themes both nationally and globally, the outstanding candidate will promote the Corporate Law portfolio of the School of Law. He or she will provide leadership in teaching, supervision and research to both undergraduate and postgraduate students, and have an established reputation for research excellence, along with an ability to assist Trinity College Dublin and the School of Law in their respective endeavours to attract external grant funding.

Further information on this position can be obtained at www.tcd.ie/hr/vacancies

The closing date for receipt of completed applications is noon, 17th February 2012.

Please note: interviews and presentations will be held on the 10th and 11th of April 2012.
